Case No. CV10-0014 DDP (JCx)

DEFENDANT THIERRY GUETTA'S
RESPONSES TO PLAINTIFF'S REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS, SET THREE

19 PROPOUNDING PARTY: PLAINTIFF GLEN E. FRIEDMAN

20 RESPONDING PARTY: DEFENDANT THIERRY GUETTA

21 SET: THREE 22

23 Defendant Thierry Guetta hereby submits the following responses to Plaintiff's 24 Request for Production of Documents, Set Three to Defendant Thierry Guetta:

25 PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

26 Each of the responses to the individual requests herein incorporates and is subject 27 to this preliminary statement and the general objections set forth below. The preliminary 28 statement and objections form a part of the response to each request and are set forth in

1 this manner to avoid repetition. While the preliminary statement and objections may be 2 referred to specifically in response to an individual request, the failure to do so is not and 3 should not be construed as a waiver thereof. Responding Party has not fully completed his 4 investigation of these matters and has not completed discovery. All of the written 5 responses herein are based solely upon such information and documents presently 6 available, known to or understood by Responding Party. The following responses are given 7 without prejudice to Responding Party' right to supplement, alter or amend these 8 responses as the result of subsequently discovered documents. Responding Party further 9 reserves his right to use as evidence in this action any hereafter-acquired or discovered 10 documents that would have been responsive to these requests for production. Responding 11 Party' responses are not in any way to be deemed an admission or representation that 12 there are no further documents relevant to the subject matter of these requests.

13 These responses are made subject to, and without in any way waiving or intending 14 to waive:

15 1. The right to object to other discovery proceedings involving or relating to the 16 same subject matter of the requests; or

17 2. The right at any time to revise, correct, add to, or clarify any of the responses 18 set forth herein. Furthermore, these responses are given subject to correction of any 19 omissions or errors.

20 Responding Party will make reasonable efforts to respond to every request, to the 21 extent it has not been objected to, as Responding Party understands and interprets the 22 request, provided that the request is not so vague, ambiguous and/or unintelligible that a 23 response is impossible. If Responding Party or any other party to this action subsequently 24 asserts an interpretation of the request that differs from that of Responding Party, 25 Responding Party reserves the right to supplement his objections and responses as 26 necessary.

27 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

28 Responding Party makes the following general objections applicable to each request

1 responded to herein. Whether or not separately set forth in response to each request, 2 these objections apply to the form, scope and substance of all of the definitions, 3 instructions, requests and other matters contained within the First Set of Requests for 4 Production. All such objections to this and any future demand for discovery involving or 5 relating to matters raised herein are reserved and may be asserted at the time of trial or 6 any other hearing.

7 Responding Party generally objects to each separate request in the First Set of 8 Requests for Production on the following grounds:

9 Responding Party objects to each request to the extent it calls for privileged 10 information, including but not limited to, information protected by the attorney-client 11 privilege, the attorney work product doctrine or other applicable constitutional, statutory or 12 common law privileges. Responding Party will not provide such information. Any 13 inadvertent production of such information shall not be deemed a waiver of any such 14 privileges.

15 Responding Party objects to each request to the extent it calls for confidential or 16 proprietary information of Responding Party, third parties, and/or information protected by 17 the right of privacy. Responding Party objects to each request to the extent it attempts or 18 purports to impose any discovery obligations beyond those set forth in the Federal Rules 19 of Civil Procedure. In the following responses, all definitions and other instructions shall be 20 treated as having no force or effect to the extent that they purport to require that 21 Responding Party exceed those duties.

22 Responding Party objects to each request to the extent it attempts or purports to 23 impose an obligation on Responding Party to investigate or discover information from third 24 parties not under Responding Party' control or persons who are equally accessible to 25 Requesting Party. Responding Party objects to each request on the grounds it is overly 26 broad, vague and ambiguous in its use of the term "YOU" and "YOUR."
